

3359-26-01 General information.

- (A) The following items address policies, procedures and benefits that are available to the university of Akron staff employees. Individuals governed by the articles of collective bargaining agreements should refer to contractual language of such agreements for certain provisions.
- (B) The university of Akron follows the provisions of Revised Code in adopting human resource policies and procedures.
- (C) Some policies and procedures may refer to "exempt" or "non-exempt staff." The term "exempt" includes ~~biweekly~~ salaried staff personnel who are not eligible for overtime.